live is it that we fear the winters now? Their bouse-fires fall as bright on hearth and cham

Their northern star-light shines as coldly clear; The snods still keep their holly for December, The world a welcome yet for the new year; And far away in old remembered places, The snow-drop rises and the robin sings;

The our and moon look out with loving faces: Why have our days forgot such goodly things? Is it that now the north winds finds us slinken By tempest flercer than its bitter blast, Waich fair beliefs and friendship, too, have taken Away like summer foliage as they passed, And made life leafless in its pleasant valleys, Waning the light of premise from our day, Till mists meet even in the inward palaceA dimness not, like theirs, to pass away?

It was not thus when dreams of love and laurels Gave sanshine to the winters of our youth, Before its hopes had fallen in fortuna's quarrels. Or time had bowed them with his heavy truth; Ere yet the twilight found as strange and lonely, With shadows coming when the fire burns low, To tell of distant graves and losses only-

Alasi dear friends, the winter is within us; Hard is the ice that grows about the heart; For perty cares and vain regrets did win us From life's tene heritage and better part. Sessons and skies rejoles, yea, worship sather; But nations toti and tremble even as we, Roping for barrest they will never gather, Fearing the winters which they may not see.

The past that cannot change and will not go.

What the Conservative Party Propose to Accompthi.
The Address of the Conservative Executive Committee contains the following : First we propose to amend the Constitution, either through the instrumentality of a new conven-tion or the General Assembly, as shall be deemel best, by the General Assembly itself, so as fully to re establish civil and religious liberty, and rein-

best, by the General Assembly itself, so as fully to re establish civil and religious liberty, and reinstate every voter, every clergyman, every teacher, in his ancient rights and privileges. To do this it will be necessary to sweep away every vestige of the "oath of loyalty" and Registry law, and accordingly we propose to sweep away every vestige of them. We further propose to restore promptly to the people, the power of filling all the offices, which were vacated by the ousting ordinance, and which are now filled by the Governor's appointees. The incumbents, if they wish to remain in office, must procure a ratification of their appointment by the people. In other words, we propose that an especial election be held at the earliest practicable day, for filling these offices in the proper way. We further propose to throw the courts of justice open to everyboly, so that certain remedy shall be afforded for injury to person, properly or character, by repealing that section of the Constitution which exempts milliary men acting under authority from the legal consequences of illegal acts. We further propose to exempt churches, censileries, charitable institutions and furniture or household properly, not worth more than $500, from taxation. We furthermore propose to restore to the State, if it shall be found lawful, the invaluable public property which has been set apart to meet her liabilities, and which has been corruptly delivered over or sold to certain individuals for comparatively trifling considertions; and which acts of sale or transfer are, in all mobability liberal. We further propose to tain individuals for comparatively triting considerations, and which acts of sale or transfer are, in all probability, illegal. We further propose to bring every functionary to justice who has been accessory to the overthrow, by violence, of the elected judiciery, or to the murder of citizens by armed bands, acting under military authority, after peace was restored and martial law revoked; or to the imposition, by means of forcest and fraudupeace was restored and martial law revoked; or to the imposition, by means of forged and fraudulent elections returns, of any law or ordinance on the State. We furthermore propose that Missouri shall refuse to vote for the ordinas Constitutional Amendment, emanating from the "Central Directory" in Washington, one of the evil effects of which would be to put the State in the dilemma of forfeiting part of her representation in Congress, or conferring the suffrage on negroes—a dilemma in which she has been writingly placed by Radical Senators and some of her RadicalRepresentatives in the present Congress. We further propose to send Representatives and Senators to Congress who will cordially support the policy of President Johnson, and co-operate with him in restoring the son, and co-operate with him in restoring Southern States to all their Constitutional rights,

FOR SAIC.

Having sold that part of the farm on which my steam Circular Saw Mill stands, I now offer said mill for sale on very low and easy terms. Said mill is in good running order, and nearly new. I will sell at a great bargain or exchange for other property that suits me. I also offer the other part of my farm, lying on the Keytesville road, immediately in front of Daniel B. White's house, containing about 100 acres, 16 acres in woodland, and the balance cleared. All under fence. There is an orchard and a tobacco barn on the land, and it is capable of being made one of the most desirable small farms in the county. There are several fine springs of water that never fail, on the tract. For fertility of soil there is no better to be found in the county. The crop of themp and corn growing on the land will prove its superior quality. Terms will be made to sult the purchaser, as I am determined to sell.

I have also 100 barrels of corn to sell. jy13-3t*
